

Program
Population Dynamics in the Circumpolar North
Umeå University, Sweden
June 6-9

The workshop is funded by

Graduate School in Population Dynamics and Public Policy, Umeå University

Centre for Population Studies, Umeå University

Centre for Sami Research, Umeå University

Friday, June 6

18.00 - Reception

Location: Centre for Population Studies (CPS), Norra Beteendevetarhuset, floor 4, Umeå university.
(About CPS: <http://www.cbs.umu.se>)

Saturday, June 7

Location all sessions A-F: Umeå Folkets Hus, Vasaplan (across the street from Royal Hotel, Umeå City Center).

Sessions A-D, Saturday and Sunday, Room: "Rist" and "Mist".

Sessions E-F, Monday, Room: Peterson-Berger.

10.00 – 12.00 Session A – Chair: Per Axelsson, Sweden

10.00-10.30 Welcome and introduction to the workshop, Anders Brändström, Centre for Population Studies, Olle Westerlund, Department of Economics, Umeå University, Sweden.

10.30-11.00 The People of the Eight Seasons: Sami Nomadism Effects on Landowning, Epidemics, Statistics and Conflicts, Peter Sköld Centre for Sami Research, Umeå University, Sweden.

11.00-11.30 The Places People Leave and the Places They Stay: Community Migration in Alaska's North, Lee Huskey, University of Alaska, Anchorage, USA.

11.30-12.00 Comparing Inuit migration in Northern Alaska and Canada, Stephanie Martin, University of Alaska, Anchorage, USA.

12.00 - 13.30 Lunch at Umeå Folkets hus, restaurant 'Äpplet'

13.30 – 17.00 Session B – Chair: Peter Schweitzer, Fairbanks, USA

13.30-14.00 Changes in gender and generation based differences in migration patterns in Greenland, Rasmus Ole Rasmussen, University of Roskilde, Denmark.

14.00-14.30 The political planning and migration in Greenland & How data from SLiCA (Survey of Living Conditions in the Arctic) can contribute to migration research among Inuit and Sami peoples", Birger Poppel, Ilisimatusarfik, University of Greenland, Denmark.

14.30-14.50 Break

14. 50-15.20 The Role of Subsistence Opportunities in Migration Decisions of Arctic Inupiat Residents, Matt Berman, University of Alaska, Anchorage, USA.

15.20-15.50 Migration Patterns in the Canadian North in 2001: An Indigenous/Non-indigenous comparison, Chris Southcott, Lakehead University, Canada.

15.50-16.20 Inuit migration within and out of Nunavut: Data from the Nunavut Household Survey, Jack Hicks, Ilisimatusarfik, University of Greenland, Denmark.

18.00 Departure by bus from Vasaplan to Skeppsvik for dinner

Sunday, June 8

10.00 – 12.00 Session C – Chair: Olle Westerlund, Sweden

- 10.00-10.30 Population Dynamics of Arctic Alaska Communities, Lawrence Hamilton & Angela Mitiguy, Sociology Department, University of New Hampshire, USA.
- 10.30-11.00 Changing Origins and Destinations of Migrants in the Russian North, Tim Heleniak, University of Maryland, USA.
- 11.00-11.30 Relocations and Resettlements in Alaska and Chukotka: Similarities and Differences, Peter Schweitzer, University of Alaska, Fairbanks, USA..
- 11.30-12.00 Came for a year- stayed for ever: relocation biographies and attachment to the North in Novyi Urengoi, West Siberia, Florian Stammer, Arctic Centre of Lapland, Finland / Scott Polar Institute, University of Cambridge, UK.

12.00-13.30 Lunch at Umeå Folkets hus, restaurant 'Äpplet'

13.30 – 17.00 Session D – Chair: Lee Huskey, Anchorage, USA.

- 13.30-14.00 “Nationality” and Household Structure in the Barents Region, Gunnar Thorvaldsen, University of Tromsø, Norway.
- 14.00-14.30 Gendered Migration Patterns and Motives in the Past, Lotta Vikström, Centre for Population Studies, Umeå University, Sweden.

14.30-14.50 Break

- 14.50-15.20 Determinants of Migration in Northern Sweden – exploring intraregional differences in migration processes, Olle Westerlund, Umeå University, Sweden.
- 15.20-15.45 General discussions and information
- 15.45 – 16.30 Internal meetings, BOREAS CRP:s

19.00 Dinner at Sävargården

Monday , June 9

Room: Peterson-Berger

09.00 – 12.10 Session E – Chair: Sofia Kling, Umeå University

09.00-09.30 The 1926/27 Polar Census and Ethnographic Analogy, David Anderson, University of Aberdeen, Scotland/University of Tromsø, Norway.

09.30-10.00 Differential population dynamics in the regions of Finland and a special analysis for Lappland, Elli Heikkilä, Institute of Migration, Turku, Finland.

10.00-10.20 Break

10.20-10.50 The Peregrine Profession- International migration and Mobility of Engineers and Architects, 1880-1930, Per-Olof Grönberg, Centre for Population Studies, Umeå University, Sweden.

10.50-11.20 Migration behavior and duration of residence spells after education, Hannu Tervo, University of Jyväskylä, Finland.

11.20-11.50 Interregional job matching and migration of young people in northern Norway, Mikko Moilanen, University of Tromsø, Norway.

11.50-13.20 Lunch at Umeå Folkets hus, restaurant 'Äpplet'

13.20 – 16.00 Session F Chair: David Anderson, UK/Norway

13.20-13.50 Characteristics of interregional migrants in Sweden 1970-2001, Emma Lundholm, Department of Social and Economic Geography, Umeå University

13.50-14.20 Elderly Parents and Adult Children as Migration Attraction - evidence from Swedish register data. Gunnar Malmberg & Anna Pettersson, Department of Social and Economic Geography, Umeå University

14.20-14.40 Break

14.40-15.10 Migration and Labour Market Outcomes of Recent College Graduates: Swedish Evidence, Kent Eliasson, Swedish Institute for Growth Policy Studies and Umeå University.

15.10-15.40 Active Labor Market Programs and Regional Mobility of Labor: Preliminary Evidence from Sweden. Robert Nakosteen, University of Massachusetts at Amherst, USA, Olle Westerlund, Umeå University, Sweden, Michael A. Zimmer, University of Evansville, USA.

15.40-16.00 Closing of the workshop, Olle Westerlund & Per Axelsson, Umeå University, Sweden