Day-to-day operations are linked to the ESF SmartSimple Platform.

This position will involve:

- Undertaking general administrative duties linked to ESF Grant Evaluation activities:
  - Monitoring of invitation process of reviewers and scientific staff
  - Assisting with the GE mission set-up on a platform (e.g., updating the platform and cross-checking information)
  - Supporting the processing of the expert honoraria payments
  - Supporting the development and maintenance of the College of Experts, including communication with experts and expert invitation campaigns
- Providing logistical on-site support for meetings as appropriate;
- Contacting and linking with external experts and members of the ESF Community of Experts.
- Making optimal and cost-effective travel arrangements as requested;
- Entering and updating relevant data into ESF information systems, in compliance with ESF procedural rules.

The Administrative Assistant should demonstrate the following competencies:

- Administrative/secretarial qualifications with 1- or 2-years’ experience, preferably in an international environment;
- Knowledge of office procedures and of organisation of meetings and travel;
- Good standard of spoken and written English as the working language;
- Good computer skills and good knowledge of Excel;
- Good inter-personal and communication qualities within a multi-national context;
- Good understanding of ESF activities and instruments;
- Task-orientated and responsible and continuously improvement-minded with a willingness to develop further skills through appropriate training;
- Transparency in working and a team-orientated work ethic (both in terms of Unit and corporate working);
- Good organisational skills and capacity to deliver on allocated tasks and respond in a timely manner to deadlines;
- Commitment to “customer care” with colleagues throughout the organisation and to ensuring external customer satisfaction;
- Ability to manage priorities;
- Positive and constructive attitude.
Employment conditions:

- This full-time position is expected to start in October 2022.
- Permanent contract (CDI).
